SUBJECT: Preliminary review regarding the programme of study “LLB in Law”, which is to be offered by Neapolis University Pafos, via the franchise method, in collaboration with the University of Reading, UK

Based on the CYQAA Law [N. 136 (I) / 2015 to 35 (I) 2021], I have instructions to inform you in regards to the findings of the preliminary review, carried out by CYQAA, for the programme of study LLB in Law (3 academic years, 360 Credits, Undergraduate), of the institution University of Reading-UK, which is to be offered via the franchise method by your institution, Neapolis University Pafos.

In your letter of reply, you should include, in accordance with the above-mentioned Law, all the information that the Agency has identified as deficient or missing in the preliminary review.

It is expected that your response will be structured, and that you will reply with specific references to documentation (annexes and pages) in accordance to the Agency’s Law.

Observations during the preliminary review:

It was noticed that on Table C- Course Distribution per Year/ per Semester of the Request for review of the programme, the optional courses LW2YCJ-Young People, Crime and Justice, LW2EHR- Introduction to International and European Human Rights Law and LW2FIL- Foundations of International Law, are included as part of the programme. These courses however, are not offered by the University of Reading.

Furthermore, on the second year of studies of the programme, the University of Reading offers the optional course “War in the Ukraine”, which does not appear on Table C-

Course Distribution per Year/ per Semester on the Request for review of the programme.

Please comment on the above.

I remain at your disposal for any inquiries.
