The present document has been prepared within the framework of the authority and competencies of the Cyprus Agency of Quality Assurance and Accreditation in Higher Education, according to the provisions of the “Quality Assurance and Accreditation of Higher Education and the Establishment and Operation of an Agency on Related Matters Laws” of 2015 to 2021 [L.136(I)/2015 – L.132(I)/2021].

In English: Concentrations

A. Introduction

This part includes basic information regarding the onsite visit.

The Committee visited the University of Limassol online on Zoom.

Committee members were provided with documentation before the meeting, including an application form. The Committee met shortly before the evaluation visit and discussed the questions it intended to ask the various groups. Emily Mouskou from CYQAA outlined the procedure for the visit.

In the afternoons of both 7 and 8 December 2023 the Committee met with the management team and teachers on the Foundation Course. As there are no students yet, the Committee did not meet with any students.

The Committee was not able to visit the learning, teaching and accommodation facilities. However, a video-based campus tour was provided, which gave a good idea of the quality of the facilities.

The Committee would like to make clear that the programme is not an academic programme in the traditional sense and that the questions in the form below were not all equally applicable. Moreover, as the programme has not yet run, some of its assessments are based on future plans and intentions.

B. External Evaluation Committee (EEC)

A list of strengths, e.g. examples of good practices, achievements, innovative solutions etc.

Areas of improvement and recommendations

A list of problem areas to be dealt with, followed by or linked to the recommendations of how to improve the situation.

- The EEC should state the compliance for each sub-area (Non-compliant, Partially compliant, Compliant), which must be in agreement with everything stated in the report. It is pointed out that, in the case of standards that cannot be applied due to the status of the HEI and/or of the programme of study, N/A (= Not Applicable) should be noted.
- The EEC should state the conclusions and final remarks regarding the programme of study as a whole.

- There is a comprehensive and very detailed study guide based on the post communicative approach to language teaching.
- The programme website is well-designed and informative.
- The University stated that:
  - courses are to be continually evaluated and updated where needed, using student feedback.

- student feedback will be taken seriously, and discussed internally.
- courses will be monitored internally and externally according to international standards.

Areas of improvement and recommendations

A list of problem areas to be dealt with, followed by or linked to the recommendations of how to improve the situation.

- The University may want to consider setting up a more permanent structure, to ensure the smooth day-to-day implementation of the programme as well as its academic management.

- Within both semesters there are opportunities to practise individual skills, as outlined in the study guide.

Strengths

A list of strengths, e.g. examples of good practices, achievements, innovative solutions etc.

- With a small anticipated intake students will receive ample individual attention.
- Interactive activities will be adapted making the course interesting and practical.
- Formative testing, an important part of language learning and teaching, will be applied in all courses.

Areas of improvement and recommendations

A list of problem areas to be dealt with, followed by or linked to the recommendations of how to improve the situation.

The Committee had some concerns about the potential mixed abilities of the incoming cohort, and how this would be handled. Initially this may not be a problem, in view of the small number of students anticipated to apply to the programme, but it may pose a problem in the future if a larger cohort is admitted. Some advance planning might be appropriate here.

D. Conclusions and final remarks

Please provide constructive conclusions and final remarks which may form the basis upon which improvements of the quality of the programme of study under review may be achieved, with emphasis on the correspondence with the EQF.

We find the programme to be compliant with the CYQAA requirements.

Staff in the University are qualified to teach on the programme, and have relevant teaching experience.

The design and content of the programme is appropriate for a Foundation Course of this kind. It offers skills in the areas of listening, speaking, writing, and reading, as well as generic academic skills and practical skills.

Student support services are in place as well as feedback procedures.

Because the course has not yet started, the Committee did not have the opportunity to look at students' work, so it was not possible to take a view of the academic level of the students' work or of the quality of the feedback given to students.

The resources (campus, accommodation, library, internet, etc.) are good, and provide an attractive working environment for students on the programme.

We found all the staff in the University, especially the teaching staff, to be enthusiastic and engaged, witness the detailed study guide.
