*Ph.D. candidates who haven't had a research methodology course in their post-graduate studies (MA Programs) will mandatorily take the Research Methodology Course offered at the Master's level. This requirement forms part of the research proposal process with a Pass/Fail grade and without ECTS allocated. Moreover, all Ph.D. students are strongly encouraged to attend the online research-supportive sessions organized on a yearly basis by the Faculty Training and Development Unit of the University of Nicosia.
